Dear Mr. Butler and Mr. Miller

I enclose herewith
a note on certain modifications proposed to the provisions
in the Census Act in Mr. Langford's member of Council and I saw that a Draft Report was under consideration and asked me to

sent a note of the alterations suggested by the Director
Statistics in charge of Census operations
in 1904

Yours sincerely

Three points are specified in respect of which modifications
in the Census Regulation are suggested

I confess I do not agree to the alterations
suggested in para
44. It may be ascertained if the proposed modification has been carried out

 The D.O. from the then Secretary to the the wide power conferred in the Courts by the Evidence Act with regard to the Summoning of Evidence. But this does not entitle the parties to insist on the admission of evidence which is, by any law for the time being, declared inadmissible.

Through the Revenue Commissioners in

Sir,

I have the honor to reply to your letter No. J 3035, dated 15th April 1910, requesting me to submit for the information of Government, my suggestions for preparing the Draft Census Regulation for the forthcoming decennial Census of 1911.

2. In Para 42 of the Administrative Report (Part V of the Census Report 1901) and Para 14 of the Draft Outlines of a Scheme for abstraction and tabulation (Appendix 49 of the above report) the suggestion is made by the Census Superintendent that the period for which the house numbers should

Should be maintained, Should be fixed at six months or one year from the date of Census for reasons there given and that the Regulation should be amended so as to provide for this. I think the period of six months seems sufficient.

3. Again in Para 43 of the above report, the suggestion is made that offences under the Regulation should be made triable by Taluk Magistrates instead of by 1st class Magistrates.

I think that Second class Magistrates may be invested with this power.

4. In Para 44 of the Report, the suggestion is made that the latter part of Section 12 of the Census Regulation should be repealed.

This involves a question of principle and I would not advocate the repeal unless a corresponding change is made in the India Census Regulation.

Adverting to your Docket No.J.3619/Legis.33-09 dated 30th Instant, requesting to be furnished with a copy of the ruling referred to in Para 44 of the Mysore Census Administration Report for 1901(Part V), I have the honor to state that the Taluk Magistrate of Doddballapur having in 1900-01 requested the transmission of a Census Schedule relating to a specified house for Court use in a case in which private persons were parties, the file of correspondence ending with Bangalore District Magistrate's No.1529 dated the 15th May 1901 was submitted to Government for Orders with the then Director of Statistics and Census Superintendent's letter No1503, dated the 17th idem. In reply thereto the General and Revenue Secretary demi-officially intimated to the Census Superintendent on the 22nd August 1901 that "the document being legally admissible in evidence, the Court has power, the Dewan thinks, to summon for its production". The then Assistant Census Superintendent was accordingly directed in No.276 dated 24th August 1901 to furnish the Schedule to the Magistrate. This appears to be the ruling referred to in the Administrative Volume quoted

My Dear Sir

I Enclose herewith

a copy of a draft Regulation to provide for the taking of the General Census in Mysore in 1911. The bill is based on the Mysore Regulation of 1901
and the draft Bill now before the Supreme Legislative Council of British India,
but it differs from them
in two small matters: viz
(1) the period during which the letters marks or number which shall have been painted or affixed for the purposes of the Census have to be kept intact is extended to Six months over.

(cl 1012)

SUBJECT.

and (2) Sub-clause 2 of clause 11 has been omitted,
the Government reserving to themselves the entire power to declare by what classes of magistrates the offences under the Regulation may be tried.

2 It is intended to place
the Bill before the ~~the~~ Mysore Legislative Council and to pass it at the next meeting, viz on the 15th August 1910.

Yours sincerely

(3) The Government may delegate to such authority as it thinks fit the power of appointing census-officers which is conferred by this section.

(2) All census-officers shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code.

(c) every keeper, secretary or manager of any choultry, hotel, boarding-house, lodging-house or club, and shall, if so required by the District Magistrate, or by such officer as the Government may appoint in this behalf, perform such of the duties of a census-officer in relation to the persons who at the time of the taking of the census are under his command or charge, or inmates of his house or present on or in such immoveable property, as such Magistrate or officer may, by written order, direct.

Power of District Magistrate to call upon certain persons to give assistance

(a) all owners and occupiers of land, tenure-holders, farmers, and assignees of land-revenue or their agents, and

to give such assistance as he needs towards the taking of a census of the persons who are at the time of the census on the lands of such owners, occupiers, holders, farmers and assignees, or in the villages or other areas for which such village officials are appointed, as the case may be.

(2) Such order shall specify the nature of the assistance required and such owners, occupiers, holders, farmers and assignees or their agents and such village officials shall be bound to obey it.

Asking of questions by census-officers

6. Every census-officer may ask all such questions of all persons within the limits of the local area for which he is appointed, as, by instructions issued in this behalf by the Government and published in the official Gazette, he may be directed to ask.

7. Every person of whom any question is asked under the last foregoing section shall be legally bound to answer such question to the best of his knowledge or belief: Obligation to answer question

Provided that no person shall be bound to state the name of any female member of his household, and that no woman shall be bound to state the name of her husband or deceased husband or of any other person whose name she is forbidden by custom to mention.

8. Every person occupying any house, enclosure or other place shall allow census-officers such access thereto as they may require for the purposes of the census, and as, having regard to the customs of the country, may be reasonable, and shall allow them to paint on or affix to the place such letters, marks or numbers as may be necessary for the purposes of the census. Occupier to allow access, and permit affixing of numbers.

(1) Subject to such orders as the Government may issue in this behalf, any census-officer may leave, or cause to be left, at any dwelling-house within the local area for which he is appointed, a schedule for the purpose of its being filled up by the occupier of such house or of any specified part thereof with such particulars as the Government may direct regarding the inmates of such house or part at the time of the taking of the census. Occupier to fill up schedule.

Regulation No I of 1910 (Received the Assent of His Highness the Maharaja of on the 26th day of Aug: 1910)
A Regulation to provide for certain matters
~~THE MYSORE CENSUS BILL.~~
in connection with the taking of the Census.

~~A Bill to provide for certain matters in connection with the taking of the Census.~~

Whereas it has been determined to take a census of Mysore during the year 1911, and it is expedient to provide for certain matters in connection with the taking of such census; His Highness the Maharaja is pleased to enact as follows:—

1. (1) This Regulation may be called "the Mysore Census Regulation, 1910." Title, extent and commencement.

(2) It extends to the whole of Mysore; and

(3) It shall come into force at once.

2. (1) The Government may appoint any person to take, or aid in or supervise the taking of, the census within any specified local area. Appointment of census-officers.

(2) Persons so appointed shall be called census-officers.

(3) The Government may delegate to such authority as it thinks fit the power of appointing census-officers which is conferred by this section.

3. (1) A declaration in writing, signed by any officer authorised by the Government in this behalf, that any person has been duly appointed a census-officer for any local area shall be conclusive proof of such appointment. Proof of appointment of census-officers, and their status as public servants.

(2) All census-officers shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code.

4. (1) (a) Every officer in command of any body of men belonging to His Highness the Maharaja's Military Forces, Discharge of duties of census-officers in certain cases.

(b) every person in charge of a lunatic asylum, hospital, workhouse, prison, reformatory or lock-up, or of any public, charitable, religious or educational institution,

(c) every keeper, secretary or manager of any chuttram, hotel, boarding-house, lodging-house or club, and

(d) every occupant of immovable property and every manager or officer of a railway or other commercial or industrial enterprise who has at the time of the taking of the census not less than twenty persons employed under him, or living on or in such property, shall, if so required by the District Magistrate, or by such officer as the Government may appoint in this behalf, perform such of the duties of a census-officer in relation to the persons who at the time of the taking of the census are under his command or charge, or inmates of his house or present on or in such immovable property, as such Magistrate or officer may, by written order, direct.

(2) All the provisions of this Regulation relating to census-officers shall apply, so far as they can be made applicable, to all persons while performing such duties under this section, and any person refusing or neglecting to perform any duty which he is directed under this section to perform shall be deemed to have committed an offence under Section 187 of the Indian Penal Code.

Power of District Magistrate to call upon certain persons to give assistance.

5. (1) The District Magistrate, or such officer as the Government may appoint in this behalf for any local area, may, by written order, which shall have effect throughout the limits of his district or of such local area, as the case may be, call upon—

(a) all owners and occupiers of land, tenure-holders, farmers, and assignees of land-revenue or their agents, and

(b) all village officials in alienated tracts including inam and kayangutta villages and jaghirs,

to give such assistance as he needs towards the taking of a census of the persons who are at the time of the taking of the census on the lands of such owners, occupiers, holders, farmers and assignees, or in the villages or other areas for which such village officials are appointed, as the case may be.

(2) Such order shall specify the nature of the assistance required, and such owners, occupiers, holders, farmers and assignees or their agents and such village officials shall be bound to obey it.

Asking of questions by census officers.

6. Every census-officer may ask all such questions of all persons within the limits of the local area for which he is appointed, as, by instructions issued in this behalf by the Government and published in the official Gazette, he may be directed to ask.

Obligation to answer questions.

7. Every person of whom any question is asked under the last foregoing section shall be legally bound to answer such question to the best of his knowledge or belief:

Provided that no person shall be bound to state the name of any female member of his household, and that no woman shall be bound to state the name of her husband or deceased husband or of any other person whose name she is forbidden by custom to mention.

Occupier to allow access, and permit affixing of numbers.

8. Every person occupying any house, enclosure or other place shall allow census-officers such access thereto as they may require for the purposes of the census, and as, having regard to the customs of the country, may be reasonable, and shall allow them to paint on or affix to the place such letters, marks or numbers as may be necessary for the purposes of the census.
